

Participatory Strategic Planning: How to Facilitate a Planning Process that Leads to Action and Commitment

Use a proven process to turn plans into action and commitment.

YOU WILL LEARN

- Create a shared group vision
- Help groups uncover their obstacles and associated underlying causes
- Develop strategies which focus a group towards a new direction
- Get buy-in and create momentum for getting plans implemented
- Use a common framework for decision-making, communication, planning and problem-solving
- Develop greater initiative and responsibility for turning plans into action
- Produce more innovative solutions to tough problems by engaging all members of a group and getting more ideas into the process
- Explore a variety of applications for these skills

COURSE HIGHLIGHTS

1. Defining the Context for Planning
2. Creating a Shared Vision
3. Identifying the Obstacles
4. Creating New Directions
5. Creating Action Plans
6. Using the Planning Process

DURATION

2 days